NORTH CAROLINA.

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

LET US HAVE PEACE.

"Martial law," says General Grant in an official communication on Southern affairs, bearing date January 29, 1867; "martial law would give security, or comparatively so, to all classes of citizens, without regard to race, color, or political opinions, and could be continued until society was capable of protecting itself, or until the State is returned to its full relations to the Union. The application of martial law to one of these States would be a warning to all, and, if necessary, could be extended to others."

How trippingly this reads does it not?—And what a light it throws on the manner in which, if General Grant be elected, we are to have peace. You will notice that this declaration of martial law being a panacea for civil ills bears date January 29, 1867, or prior to the passage of the first reconstruction act, whereby, in the language of said act, these Southern States were "divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States." Military rule was not set up in the South by Congress till March, 1867, and yet in January of that year General Grant favors martial law, and says, as though it were quite a matter of course, that the application thereof to one "would be a warning to all, and, if necessary, could be extended to others."

In the light of this revelation it is easy to see what is meant. "Let us have peace," says Grant. How? say we. "Martial law would give security" is his response.—N. Y. World.

Rev. Thomas H. Stockton, for several terms chaplain to the House of Representatives at Washington, and well known as a minister of the Methodist Protestant church, died recently in Philadelphia, aged sixty years.

IRON TIES vs. ROPE,

FOR BALING COTTON.

The New Orleans "Annual Statement and Prices Current" of 31st August, 1868, says:

"The marked success of iron ties, for baling Cotton, has so completely superseded the use of bale rope, that the supplies of the latter have been hardly sufficient to constitute a market, the receipts comprising only 3,310 coils against 25,193 last year."

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this benefit to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULDN'T HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. OUR GOOD REGIMENT MAY BE WORTH A DOZEN REBEL REGIMENTS, BUT GO AFTER THE WOMEN, THEN. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL. MANAGE TO REPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEM AND KISS THEM, WHEN OCCASION DEMANDS IT, AND YOU CAN FIND AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES YOU ARE THE BETTER IT TAKES. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE REBS IS, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO MAKE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, TO VISIT CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT, BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LEOPARDS BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN PAWN'S IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM, BUT GIVE THEM BIBLES AND SET-TLE IN VOLUMES AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PARTY, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

THE ELECTIONS IN PENNSYLVANIA, OHIO AND INDIANA.

We were not sanguine, yet hopeful of the results of the elections on Tuesday, in the above named States. The returns, as far as received, though they have disappointed our hopes, have neither discouraged us nor dampened our ardor for the cause of truth and right, much less weakened our faith in the rectitude and wisdom of the principles embraced in the Democratic platform, or our purpose still to contend for them, as essential to the prosperity, if not the salvation of the country.

The Northern Democracy have too long been tested in the crucible of trial and disappointment, to be staggered or discouraged by the untoward success of Radicalism. Their defeat now, will only nerve them the greater for the coming contest on the 3rd of November next, and it is not too much to hope, that having learned their weak places, may yet make such a rally in Pennsylvania and Indiana, at least, as to bear aloft successfully the banner of their gallant leaders, Seymour and Blair.

The opinions of our leading presses and canvassers in all of those States, formed from actual participation in the canvass, and the known good judgment heretofore of the old Democracy in such contests, made us hopeful but then we knew there were causes at work in all those States which prevented any sanguine expectation of good results. We were aware that our friends in the great money centres and especially in New York, were not hopeful, for the reason that they knew the power of money in their elections, and that it was being used with great profusion by the Radicals in those States. And further, we were aware, that among the large number of Conservative Republicans, so-called, in those States, there was such a conviction that Gen. Grant would not administer the government on Radical principles and such a general impression that the Reconstruction Acts, though they declared their opposition to them, were not oppressing the South so grievously, could hardly be induced to abandon their party associates and vote for those whom they had learned to hate as copperheads. In these two facts, we saw grounds of fear, and hence we have avoided a too confident expression of our hopefulness in the result.

While therefore, we admit the result to be discouraging, there is no ground, whatever, for honest men and true men any where in the North or South, and especially in North Carolina, to cease our efforts to elect in November, our noble leaders, Seymour and Blair. If it were an ordinary contest for spoils, we might, without blame or wick doess, cease our most earnest and most constant efforts. But when we remember that the destinies of the Republic are poised on this issue—when we remember it is a struggle for the life of the Republic our fathers gave us and for civil and Constitutional liberty, no man, no patriot can be laggard or backward in putting forth all his endeavors to secure a triumph.

To the Democrats and Conservatives of North Carolina we therefore call, "up guards and at them!" Let no occasion slip, no task be too burdensome, no sacrifice be too great, in which every legitimate effort shall be used, to carry North Carolina for Seymour and Blair. Our local interests and circumstances, even should Gen. Grant be elected, demand that we make ourselves masters of the situation in this State.

If, after all our honest efforts, they shall prove unavailing, we can submit with the more quiet and satisfaction to the potent will of the majority of the people. If, however, by our supineness or discouragement, we give way and cease to contend with our enemies in the gate to the last, in support of the great principles for which we are contending, how can we bear the reproaches of our own infidelity to principle, when the troubles we have foretold, shall come upon us. Let there be no such word as halt! be found in our vocabulary, but forward! forward! till success perches upon our banners, or till we know we are beaten!

MISREPRESENTATION AND FALSE HOOD.

The success which has met the efforts of the enemies of the Southern people, in fixing in the minds of the Northern masses, the most unfounded prejudices and misconceptions of the real feelings and purposes of the South, both in regard to the government and the colored race, is past comprehension, except upon the principle that human nature is prone to form the worst opinion of those who are opposed to us, or who exercising the common right of manhood, differ in opinion with us. The North claims to be right in all respects, demands that the South shall think and do and feel as it does, brooking no demurer, no difference of opinion. The reason of this must be chargeable to inveterate prejudice and hatred, which may be removed and which we hope will be.

For the correction of these errors and the hope that something may be done to bring the two sections nearer in feeling and interest, we can but look upon the visit South of Hon. John Quincy Adams, and other Northern gentlemen who come among us on errands of kindness, humanity and patriotism, as opportune and encouraging.

The depth and almost incurableness of this prejudice, becomes more manifest, when it is seen, that even gentlemen of the intelligence and kindly feeling of Mr. Adams and others like him, express the greatest astonishment at the real state of things, when they see it with their own eyes and hear it with their own ears. They have not been proof against the insidious and strenuous efforts made by our enemies, both native and Northern, to misrepresent and malign the Southern people.

They have been constantly represented at the North by the Radical press and pulpit, as still hostile to the government, ready to take up arms against it, at any favorable moment, as actually arming against it, as criminally unkind and hostile to the colored population, as indisposed to do them justice. These things have been denied a thousand times. Those who make the charges have been callenged to prove them, yet in no instance has it been done. Can a Southern man lend himself to this cruel, wicked course towards his own people, and yet merit the public confidence or hope to receive its favor? Surely not. They deserve the execration of all honest men of all climes and sections and they receive it, how much soever they may for the present seem to prosper.

"LET US HAVE PEACE."—The Goldsboro Messenger of Tuesday says, that a colored man of some notoriety in that place named Washington Smith, said to a colored member of the Democratic Club, in the presence of a crowd of his followers, that if Gen. Grant was elected, it was the purpose of the blacks to exterminate the white race. If this statement be correct, though we have some doubt of its correctness, we regard it as the vaporings of an ignorant and wicked mind, that will find but few disposed to follow. If Gen. Grant is elected, whites and blacks will be made to behave themselves. If nothing else will preserve peace and order, the sword will be made to do it, no matter how grinding or oppressive the policy of the government may be.

If Mr. Seymour should be elected peace and quiet would be preserved without the sword and by the quiet and peaceful remedies of the Constitution and the laws. The right of the negroes would be as sacredly observed as the rights of the whites. In any event, no sane, considerate man anticipates collision and bloodshed. The voice of the people must prevail, and peace will be preserved. Isolated collisions and misdemeanors will occur but the guilty perpetrators will be put down.

THE WEST.—A friend writing us from Polk county says: "Let me assure you that a change is going on here, the people are beginning to open their eyes to the destructive policy of the Radicals. We feel confident from the signs of the times that Durham will be elected to Congress from this District, by at least 1,000 majority."

COMMERCIAL CONVENTION.—This body met in Norfolk on yesterday. Large arrangements were made for the accommodation of the visitors and a large number were expected. Several gentlemen from this city are in attendance. We have not yet received any account of its proceedings.

WE LEAVE it to abler casuists than we are, to decide by what rule of reason, or right, or consistency, or honor the self-same immaculate patriots among us who were a year or two ago so exercised and agonised about the evils that were to ensue from our rejection of the Howard Amendment, have become so suddenly and spasmodically, converted into a passionate love for the very horrors that were there so deeply deplored. We have read of a people who said unto Evil, "be thou my Good." But surely they were no christian people, such as the precious saints are by whom we are surrounded. They were scarcely respectable. Strange, that these shriekers over the threatened horrors should find them so sweet to the taste, so exquisite a luxury when they come to be actually realised.—There is some deep mystery about this thing. It might indeed puzzle an honest man to discover any fair process by which these weeping alarmists became instantaneously, at a single bound, the noisiest and most unrelenting advocates of that new system of faith and of works which they so lugubriously prophesied would scatter such awful ruin over the land. Such honest inquirer might suppose in his simplicity and innocence, that these intense patriots would hail the chance now offered by the great Democratic-Conservative party, of redeeming their unhappy country from the horrors, the very prophetic conception of which almost broke their loving hearts with phrensied alarm. Our honest enquirer aforesaid might also slightly suspect, if he did not rebelliously say, that there had been a most shameless and cowardly change of position. Moreover he might have the presumption to scrutinise with a little severity the motive causes that effected a change so marvellous in these patriotic self-denying worthies, as he saw them so toothsomely licking their greasy chops and gloating over the loaves and fishes lying around so lusciously, and so temptingly. He might become even a little sceptical as to human virtue generally; and almost believe that mankind are really no better than they should be. In the language of Aunt Charity, "we are all poor creatures."

There is a touching simplicity in our honest enquirer, but he is considerably greener than a gourd. The cause is patent—sticks out—somewhat plainer than the nose on a "pilgrim's" face. Cannot he see, with half an eye even, that these patriots are all bought? Yea and paid for too! every mother's son of them! and at pretty high price, considering the intrinsic value of the commodity? What on earth but money—gold or greenbacks—or office which brings them, could have tempted men of repute, of fair standing among their fellows (for there are certainly some such in the native Radical ranks) to abjure their race, forswear their color, and (without even doing it decently—by degrees) Africanize themselves spontaneously, and with brutal intrepidity, by sousing their souls and bodies head-foremost and miscellaneously into the abominable stinking dye-tub prepared and arranged by sneering radicalism for the baptismal regeneration of such natives as desired to become "trooly loil."

Could not the interesting neophytes have waited a little? Could they not have come down by degrees? Was there no half-way house—no inn by the way side, to relieve and comfort their souls? If they were determined to be Republicans of the straitest sect, would it not have been more becoming to serve a short apprenticeship with the milder sort of Republicans, and learn at least some of the decencies and amenities that yet cling to the better portion of the party? And then, they might have halted a space, in their downward debasing progress and deepened their colors gradually by a temporary association with the "really Radical branch, some of whom are said not quite to have forgotten that once they ranked among gentlemen? Did not a decent respect for the opinions of mankind" demand that "the laws of Nature and of Nature's God," should seem to have been slightly respected before perpetrating the loathsome miscegenation so much abhorred by Nature and Nature's God.

And there was still another stepping stone left, where for a brief space they might have rested before they got clear down into the lowest depths. There was the relief afforded by such turbulent spirits as Sumner and Stevens, and Forney, and the squint eyed wretch whose name should never be spoken among christians. These had their little Jericho where our native explorers might have tarried for a few days and refreshed their spirits before taking the desperate plunge into the foul unfathomable abyss. But the North Carolina out-laws could not wait. They seem to have been seized with the mad ambition

"To be the first that ever burst
Into that dismal Sea."

Neither Sumner, nor Forney, nor the Beast (non nominandum) nor that crazy old Iron-monger, in his lifetime, would have satisfied and degraded themselves and their families by installing into office over themselves half civilized Africans, whom a few short years ago our precious negrophilists would have ordered to pass by on the other side, if one of them had presumed to offer his hand in friendly greeting on terms of equality. Their advocacy of the present State of things is excused by every one of our native Radicals, who has or ever had a heart in his bosom, only on the ground of necessity. They say they would not have had it so; but it is, and so it must be; that our arms are bound—that we are prostrate—that our neck is under the heel of power, and that we are obliged to bear it. Heaven help us, if this is to last. We are no longer men; and life is not worth having, without the hope of a better future. But there is such hope. It is to be found in the patient endurance of the ills we suffer, until work, steady, constant work, shall break the fetters which bind us and bid us once more be free!

The Washington correspondent of the New York Citizen, in reply to Forney's aspersions, publishes the names of one hundred Union Generals, who now support Seymour and Blair.

For the Sentinel.

To the People of Johnston County.

FELLOW-CITIZENS:—It is alike our duty and pleasure, occupying the position we do, as Electors for the Seymour and Blair ticket, for President and Vice President of the United States, to place before you such information, as will enable you to cast your vote for the men most likely to reflect your wishes and interest in the administration of the affairs of the government.

The proper administration of the government is a matter of more importance to you than many of you are aware of under existing circumstances. Since the days of Aaron Burr, no attempt, either secretly or openly, has been made to subvert our form of government until now. No attempt has been made to deprive the States of their reserved rights until now. No party has had the bold effrontery to say the white men of the South shall submit to negro domination; but that the people of the loyal States as they are termed in the platform of the Radical party, shall determine the right of suffrage for themselves; in other words, that North Carolina shall submit to negro domination, right or wrong, while the people of New York can decide that matter for themselves at the ballot box. We put it to the candor of every man in North Carolina to say is it just, is it fair; we say it is not only unjust, but that it is unconstitutional; not only unconstitutional but an insult to the intelligence and patriotism of the people of the State. That there may not be any room for a denial of the statement we have made you upon the subject of voting, we will give you the very words referred to by us, found in the second section of the Radical platform, as published and endorsed by Grant and Colfax, the candidates for President and Vice President of the United States, on the Radical ticket. After reading it, our fellow-citizens, we ask you as free men, we ask you as honest men, to place your hand upon your heart and ask yourselves is it right, is it just, is it proper?

Republican platform, section 2nd: "The guarantee of Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men at the South, was demanded by every consideration of public safety, of gratitude and justice, and must be maintained while the question of suffrage in all the loyal States properly belongs to the people of those States."

The political tricksters and scavengers seem not to have the honesty or the moral courage to tell the people who were the loyal men of the South; but fortunately, the thing leaked out in their re-construction measures, that was crammed down our throats at the point of the bayonet. Hear what they say in section 5th: "That when the people of any of the aforesaid rebel States shall have formed a Constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a Convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of each State, twenty one years old and upwards (of what ever race, color or previous condition) who has been a resident of said State one year previous to the day of election," &c.

Fellow citizens, it is a gross insult to your patriotism, virtue and intelligence. Will you pocket it? Will you wince under the lash of the enemies of freedom, or will you, as in days past, rise in your majesty and rebuke the gross insult upon you and your children?

Intimately connected with the subject just referred to, we desire to call your attention to another of vital importance alike to all, that of taxation.

This same Radical party, in its zeal to sap the very foundation of the Union and the Constitution and thereby rob the people not only of their liberties, but hard earnings, have labored zealously to prove that the poor man pays but little of the taxes of the government, either National or State. Now, fellow citizens, if you will give us your kind attention for a short time, we will prove to your minds, beyond a shadow of a doubt, that the laboring men pay two, out of every three dollars, of the national debt. You ask how? Because two-thirds of the public debt is owing in bonds not taxed, the interest on which has to be paid either annually or semi-annually, and that in gold, at a discount of more than forty per cent., the difference in the price of gold and greenbacks you have to lose, so that when you are called upon to pay the interest on these bonds, you must pay one dollar and forty cents in greenbacks.

Let us ask our friends what is the proportion between the men that can live without work and those compelled to follow some honest calling for a support for them and their families? We don't think we over state the number when we say nineteen out of every twenty have to follow some honest calling for a support. To satisfy you that we are correct in our statement, that labor pays a large portion of the taxes, let us call your attention to a fact familiar to all.—Take the article of tobacco as an illustration of what we state: What did you pay for it in 1860? An average of 25 cents per pound. What do you pay now? An average of 75 cents per pound. So you see there is a difference of 50 cents between 1860 and 1868. Why the difference, and what becomes of the 50 cents additional price paid? It goes for taxes and steelage. Let us pursue our figures a little farther: What is the average quantity of tobacco used by those that chew and smoke? It is at least nine pounds per year; so you see each taxpayer that uses tobacco pays $4 50 tax.

Take the article of brandy: In 1860 you paid 25 cents per quart; now you pay $1, so you pay a tax of 75 cents for every quart of spirits you use in your family.

Take the article of salt, one of the prime necessities of life: In 1860 you paid say 60 cents per bushel; now you pay a dollar, a tax of 40 cents in the bushel.

Take your coffee: In 1860 you paid 15 cents, now 50 cents per pound; tax 15 cents on every pound of coffee used in your families.

Take your sugar: In 1860 you paid 10 cents per pound; now you pay 18 cents; a difference of 8 cents per pound tax for every pound of sugar used in your families.

Take the article of molasses: In 1860 you paid 25 cents per gallon; now you pay 75 cents per gallon; a difference of 50 cents for every gallon of molasses in the way of taxes.

You will be told by these blood-thirsty Radicals that we have over stated the case; in reply we will state that the consumer is the tax payer; he has to pay a tax or profit on the production, manufacture and sale of every article used by his family, just in proportion as their taxes are high or low, just in the same proportion is the tax of the consumer, hence the great importance of economy and necessity of low taxes to the laboring classes among the tax payers.

Fellow citizens, our public debt has reached an alarming amount, and is increasing: this we state upon the authority of Mr. Delmar the official head of the statistics of the Treasury. The world's history furnishes no instance of such a gigantic debt in so short a time; such profligacy in the expenditure of the people's money. Our present national debt is greater in amount than the debt of the revolutionary war, the war of 1812, and the Mexican war combined; this dont look much like peace; yet you hear this same raw head and bloody bone, Radical party crying out with stentorian voices, in one breath war and the next peace; such hypocricy ought to put shame to the blush.

Many of you no doubt feel great solicitude for our distressed and embarrassed condition and would be glad to have pointed out to you, where we can find a remedy for our national disease. As Conservatives, we take pleasure in referring you to the medicine, presented in the platform of the Democratic party. We say freely and frankly, without any mental reservation, that the principles as laid down in that platform, will save us from impending ruin. The election of Seymour and Blair will be the salvation of the country, the preservation of the Constitution and the perpetuation of the Union: That you may be your own judges of what we say let us refer you to a few of the principles as laid down in the platform. Democratic Platform Section 1st. "Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people."

Under Radical rule, we have a military government, the civil government subservient to the military in time of profound peace; a palpable violation of the Constitution.

SECTION 2nd. "Amnesty for all past political offences and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens."

Under Radical rule the people are denied that right in North Carolina; negro suffrage is forced upon them by the bayonet, while other States are permitted to determine that right at the ballot box.

SECTION 4. "Equal Taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities."

Under Radical rule government bonds and other public securities, two-thirds of the public debt are not taxed.

SECTION 5. "One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond-holder."

Under Radical rule the bonds are not taxed, the holder receives his pay in gold, while the laborer, pensioner, soldier and producer, receive their pay in greenbacks, at forty per cent discount.

SECTION 6. "Economy in the administration of the government, reduction of the standing army, abolition of the freedman's bureau, and all political instrumentalities calculated to secure negro supremacy, &c."

Under Radical rule the public debt is increasing; the party is clamoring for an increase of the standing army; the Freedman's Bureau, yet in existence, a blighting curse upon the South; negro supremacy ruling and overshadowing the best interests of the country.

Now, fellow-citizens, we submit the case to your decision, and ask you to bring in your verdict in favor of Seymour and Blair, who are pledged if elected to restore Constitutional Liberty, guarantee to the people of North Carolina their rights, and restore peace and prosperity to the country.

ROBBERY.—We learn that Mr. Henry Austin, of Johnston county, who resides near Clayton, was robbed of about $350, mostly specie, on Tuesday night, by a gang of armed robbers. The robbers were disguised and Mr. A. thinks they were blackened white men, or white and black men.

For the Sentinel.

Messrs Editors:—In the Sentinel of the 10th inst., there is a correspondence between "the man who writes himself Governor" and Gen. Miles, in reference to certain military organizations in this State, and as the said William W. Holden says "it is my fixed purpose to maintain the peace." I deem it the duty of all good citizens to aid him in so laudable a purpose, and therefore would call his attention to the following facts. On Saturday last, the 10th inst., there was assembled in the county of Moore at a certain Mr. McDuffie's, a large crowd of negroes and "Union Leaguers" armed with guns, pistols, &c., drilling and marching about, with drums beating &c. This armed assembly was addressed and encouraged by David Barnett, the recently appointed Colonel of the Militia for Moore county. Now the question naturally arises, why did these men assume such a belligerent position if they were for peace? By what authority does the Colonel of the Militia, whose duty it is to "maintain the peace," assemble together and make speeches to armed negroes? It could be said that they were a portion of the Militia, because the enrollment had not commenced, and even if they were, why drill only the members of the Union League? Does not this look rather warlike? Does it not foreshadow scenes, such as has occurred in Georgia and Louisiana? But yet we are denounced as rebels and traitors, and they cry out "let us have peace," when drilling and arming for bloody war.

CONSERVATIVE.

THE RECONSTRUCTED STATES UNDER MARTIAL LAW.

In putting Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama, and Florida under martial law, as per order of October 9, Gen. Meade says "he will not permit the peace to be broken, and that he will not be restrained in the conscientious discharge of his duty by technicalities of law made when the present anomalous condition of affairs was neither anticipated nor provided for."

Now, we would like to ask who made this army officer conservator of the peace in these five States? We thought they were reconstructed. Congress certainly so declared on the 25th of June last, and has not only so declared but admitted certain fellows as United States Senators and Representatives therefrom. Where, then, does General Meade get his authority to proclaim martial law within them just upon the eve of the Presidential election? By what right does he set himself up to keep the peace and thereby usurp the main function of these governments, if indeed they are anything more than the rags and shreds of a civil organization? They were organized, in the express words of the Reconstruction acts, to insure "adequate protection to life or property," and if they cannot do this, and must call in an army officer to do it for them, then they and he alike are shams and usurpers. The plea of necessity will not avail. If these governments were what they ought to be, and what it was loudly vaunted they would be, there would be no such necessity. The very making of the plea is their own condemnation, since the plea is that they cannot do the very thing they were avowedly created to do.

Furthermore, General Meade, in thus proclaiming martial law in these five reconstructed States, says he "will not be restrained in the conscientious discharge of his duty by technicalities of law." Who is to judge what is a conscientious discharge of duty, and who is to decide what is a technicality of law? Obviously, nobody but Gen. Meade himself, so that, after all this tremendous turmoil and outlay and heart burning, the electoral rights of five great States are to be meted out and measured by the conscience of an old soldier and the intimate acquaintance with the technicalities of the law of a man of the sword from his youth up. And this is reconstruction; this the restoration of the Union; this the tardy and misbegotten fruit of a long course of stupid and malevolent legislation. This is the best that the Radical Congress can do—to make war for near two years upon a desolate people, with the army and Bureau and Treasury at its back, with the President overridden, with the Supreme Court gagged, with every single item of the material and political power of this great country in its absolute grasp and yet, in the two years' wrestle, to be so desperately worsted by helplessness its it as to be forced to cry in the army and provide for the surrounding of the polls with troops! Was there ever such a shame as this? There have been governments more absolutely cruel, but was there ever an administration so brutally incompetent as this? It is not a question what is to be done with these reconstructed governments, or how they are to be done away with or maintained? They are already done away. Martial law is in their place. There will be a roar and a yell, of course, to the contrary, and plentiful declarations that General Meade only means to keep the peace. Bah! What has he to do with keeping the peace if these governments are what reconstruction declared they would be, and the Chicago platform declares they are? They were to be legal, they were to protect life and preserve property. Why don't they do it? Where is the worth of the hundred millions and over that have been robbed from us to galvanize them into life? Why does General Meade review his army at Atlanta one day—his infantry and his cavalry and his artillery—and the next day declare he will not be restrained by any technicalities of law?

It is a deliberate attempt, under advice from Washington, to bayonet those States into the Electoral College for Grant. It has been seen that the negro vote reliance has failed, that the carpet bag reliance has failed, and the purpose now is to do it with cold steel. Consider, gentlemen, before you do that, consider.—N. Y. World.

It is reported in Louisville that the tobacco crop throughout Kentucky has been very much injured by recent rains. The crop will be large in quantity, but there will be a deficiency of fine leaf.

NO OCTOBER SESSION.—The following dispatch was received in Washington Saturday morning:

"Dayton, Ohio, Oct. 9.—Hon. Thomas L. Tullock, Secretary Republican Congressional Committee, Give Agent of Associated Press this item. Senator Morgan and Representative Schenck have decided it not necessary to notify a quorum of Congress to meet on the 16th. Presiding officers will adjourn the two houses to November 10th.

R. C. SCHENCK."

So Congress will not have an October session. Gen. R. C. Schenck interdicts it through a telegram to Hon. Thos. L. Tullock, Secretary of the Republican Congressional Committee. Formerly, a few simple-minded gentlemen, who were supposed to be statesmen, acted upon the idea that the Constitution was the supreme law of the land, and under it the President alone had power to call Congress together. The country is coming out of this mental obscurity, however, and becoming enlightened.

The President is relieved of all responsibility as regards convening Congress. That is entrusted to a political party leader. He pipes, and his radical colleagues dance. In September he says to Congress, "Come," and it cometh; and in October he says, "Come not," and it remains away. But this telegram goes further. It not only informs the country that "Senator Morgan and Representative Schenck have decided it not necessary to notify a quorum of Congress to meet on the 16th, but it also gives a positive, despotic command to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives. "Presiding officers will adjourn two houses to November 10th," is the language used. Like obedient children, they must obey. Solitary and alone in their respective chambers, Mr. Wade and Mr. Colfax will mount to their desks and declare another recess until November 10th.

The Milton (N. C.) Chronicle pays the following tribute to Virginia:

A fit resting place for the Confederate dead. There she stands! sic semper tyrannis still glittering on her battered shield! Her garments are dusty with the smoke of battle; her bosom still bleeding from the ravages of war. Gyved, guarded! hedged in with bayonets!—yet free. And she refuses to defile the mantle under which her Washington and Lee and Jackson have been nurtured. Let our dead rest there. Move not a bone from that sacred soil.

Senator Morgan and Representative Schenck have decided that there shall be no quorum present at the meeting of Congress on the 16th inst. The two houses will accordingly be adjourned until the 10th of November.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but stop. LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at K. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

Valuable Farm for Sale.

I OFFER FOR SALE that well known and desirable Farm, formerly owned by R. W. Edmundson, near Stantonsburg, Wilson County, N. C. It is situated on the County Road leading from Goldsboro' to Tarboro. The Tract contains of which 365 are cleared and in a fine state of cultivation. Plenty of MARL, easy of access. A good variety of Fruits and Vineyards, good Water, a healthy locality and intelligent and refined society. Dwelling House with 5 or 6 moderate rooms, nearly new. All out-houses necessary on a Farm.

The Farm is adapted to the growth of COTTON, CORN, VEGETABLES, and everything else usually grown in this section. It is located 7 miles from the W. & W. R. R., and is certainly one of the most beautiful situations in Eastern Carolina. I deem further description unnecessary, as no one would purchase without looking for himself. Cotton and corn growing crops, with out fertilizers or compost.

Terms:—$2,000 cash, (currency,) and 100 bales of Cotton, (425 lbs. per bale,) payable in three annual instalments, with interest computed on Cotton at 15 cts per lb. I have no hesitation in saying that I believe 100 acres in Cotton will pay the entire Cotton in two years. It is a rare chance for a good investment. Such property is seldom put in market. I am not confined exactly to the above terms. The subscriber or Mr. Edmundson will take pleasure in showing the property to those wishing to purchase.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVEETION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the officer-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedman's Bureau (great cheering); and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for the high crimes of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge; and in which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried the flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavits, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been compelled to hear the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are tottering on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjugated and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe must ever be grateful by remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the preemption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South, they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to render it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of states which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.

NEW YORK.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,794, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a company charging the ordinary annual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty three and one-third per cent greater; and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.
